Sweco Business Partner

Section A – E, to be filled out and signed by the Business Partner

The Sweco group is committed to complying with all applicable business ethic laws when performing assignments, also referred to in Sweco group's Code of Conduct, Sweco CSR Policy and subsequently clarified in Sweco Business Ethics Guidelines. In addition to the general Business Partner Risk Assessment, as per Sweco's quality assurance routines and required prior to signing of contract with any Business Partner, this Business Ethics Assessment is also required prior to contract signing as well as every 12th month during the contract period. The following Sweco group documents are included as attachments:

- Code of Conduct
- CSR policy
- Business Ethics, Anti-bribery and Corruption Guidelines
- Sweco Group's Guidelines for Gifts and Entertainment

If requested by Sweco, information given should be verified by supporting documentation. After completion, the assessment must be signed by an authorised representative of the Business Partner and returned to your contact person at Sweco.
